Attorney and mediator Brigid A. Duffield, Wheaton, IL, has been named as a 2014 Illinois Super Lawyer. A pioneer in the field of mediation and a key figure in the establishment of the practice of mediation in DuPage County, Attorney Duffield specializes in several areas of alternate dispute resolution including collaborative law and arbitration along with mediation in her attempts to limit the financial and emotional costs to families while going through the legal system. These efforts, along with her impressive courtroom history, have been recognized by Super Lawyers, a service ranking attorneys across a broad spectrum of fields of law, for the second time.

A graduate of John Marshall Law School, Duffield has owned and operated the Law Office of Brigid A. Duffield, P.C., since 1988. Areas of practice include family law, divorce mediation, collaborative law, divorce arbitration, real estate, and probate. For thirty years, Duffield has been a member of the DuPage Bar Association. Her additional affiliations include the Illinois State Bar Association, the National Speakers Association, the MCLE Board of the Illinois Supreme Court Accredited CLE Provider, the Association of Conflict Resolution, the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission, the Illinois Lawyers Assistance Program, the DuPage Association of Women Lawyers, the Midwest Shelter for Homeless Veterans, and the Global Women's Leadership Forum.

The Law Office of Brigid A. Duffield, P.C. stands out from other firms due to Duffield's focus on service and education. This Friday, March 21, Duffield will hold a training program for Marriage and Family Therapists that grants three continuing education units for licensed professionals. The program will focus on sharing the secrets of the legal system with therapists whose clients are pre- or post-divorce.

In May 2014, Duffield will hold a 40 Hour Divorce and Family Mediation Program, accredited by the Association for Conflict Resolution with MCLE approval in progress. This program allows attorneys to become qualified mediators, broadening their practices and allowing continuation to collaborative law training, for which mediation training is a prerequisite.
