

Happy Thanksgiving!

Our Holiday Conflict Resolution Tips can be found on our website (*Holiday Conflict Resolution Tips*) because rather than remind you again, we wanted to take a moment in this crazy time to say "Thank You"!

We are so grateful for the families who used our services to resolve conflicts this year. We settled matters about how to peaceably co-exist in lock down, with and without kids, about how to structure vacations and parenting time when one parent was worried the other would fall short in the care of the children (not masking the children or putting them in contact with at-risk people), and about school matters virtual, hybrid and brick and mortar. Painfully, we also facilitated discussion and resolution about end-of-life matters, final wishes, family members in nursing homes with limited access to loved ones, and funeral planning of funerals that few could attend.

Families trusted us when they were most at risk and sometimes those risks were further compromised by depression, mental illness, lack of good coping or conflict resolution skills.

For us, we are thankful, grateful and so very blessed that we have been able to be of service to so many of you in what has been perhaps your most vulnerable times. So: Thank You!
